

Choir accolade

 COMMUNITY choir program, With One Voice, has been named one of Australia's 100 most innovative products or services in the Anthill Magazine Smart 100 Index. The program, which has a St Kilda branch, aims to empower participants and improve their productivity and well-being. Founder Tania de Jong said the choirs helped vulnerable people "break cycles of isolation and disadvantage and discover pathways to better futures".